TRADE IN WHEAT IS LARGELY LOCAL

bate Dull and Narrow, with Little Inclination to Follow Other Grains -Provisions Rule Easy on

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.-Bullish Argentine news and heavy liquidation in corn were only features in a dull and pathetic market today. December wheat closed a shade higher, December corn &c lower and December oats unchanged. Provisions closed 2½c to 7½c up.

There was little news of European business in wheat at the outset and December vheat opened unchanged to a shade higher at 70% to 70% on steady cables. The trade was largely local, with no early retrade was largely local, with no early reports of exports. Conditions were ready, therefore, for a slump in prices, when a sharp decline began in corn. Following this influence December wheat sagged off to 704,070%c. Primary receipts had also increased considerably, but these factors loward lower prices were soon overbalanced by renewed reports of drouth damage to the crop in Argentine. Under this influence December regained its early loss and sold to 705,070%c, though there was nothing like any active trade. Continental mables falled to respond to the Argentine news and December closed only steady, a shade higher at 705,070%c. Local receipts were 178 cars, 1 of contract grade. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 78s cars, making a total for the three points of 962 cars, against 1,081,000 a year ago. Primary receipts were 1,133,000 bushels, against 1,681,000 a year ago. Seaboard clearances in wheat and flour equated 589,000 bushels. Bradstreet's reported the world's visible supply increased 2,200,000 bushels. The seaboard reported 52 loads taken for export.

world's visible supply increased 2,200,000 bushels. The seaboard reported 52 loads taken for export.

Corn gave way early under a renewal of the selling that set in yesterday but recovered sharply on an over-sold market. December at this time touched 56c, the lowest price for this account since July 20. The country movement has become more iberal, following the fair weather, and this had a depressing effect on prices. December at the store of the selling that set in yesterday but reduced weak. 4c depressed, at 551-265-354c, and flosed weak. 4c depressed, at 551-265-34c. Receipts were 290 cars.

Oats had a duil and narrow market, thowing little inclination to follow other grains on the declines, but quickly responding to their reactions. May was in lair demand at 37c and had considerable more business than the December account. Commission houses were made the sellers, but not enough to cause a weak tone. Dember fluctuated only 4c and closed iteady, unchanged, at 354c.

Provisions ruised easy on a large supply of hogs and a resulting lower hog market. There was a recovery toward the close of the session by covering for shorts, but the cash demand was sluggish and January and 74c down at $8.90 and January ribs 14c lower at $15.23c.

Estimated receipts tomorrow: Wheat, 95 cars; corn, 160 cars; oats, 150 cars; hogs, 19,000 head.

The leading futures ranged as follows:

BOSTON. Oct. 22.—WOOL—There is no change in the condition of the wool market here. Buyers are taking supplies from time to time as wool is needed, but are showing no disposition to stock up. As a rule there is but little weakness in the market and where manufacturers need the wool they are paying about former prices. Territory wools yet reap the bulk of the business doing, while prices are about the same. Strictly choice fine territories are quoted on the accoured basis of 45c, with fine medium at 404434c and staple lots at 46647c. Fleece vools are quiet, with prices about the same. Quotations:

NEW YORK. Oct. 22—COFFEE—Spot. Rio. strong: No. 7 invoice. 74c: mild, steady; Cordova, 74cile. Trading in futures today was almost as lively as that of yesterday, while values were decidedly higher. Crop reports keep coming in and everyone is worse than the other. On this information everybody bought coffee, while the selling was scattered among those who were satisfied with their present profits. At the start prices were 10 to 15 points higher on covering. European and Wall street buying and some purchases by street houses. European advices were rather conflicting, inasmuch as Hamburg was but it to 1½ pfgs. higher at the close, while Havre, after opening 1½ to 2½ francs up Sunday night, dropped and at the close was net it however o if net higher. Private cables attributed this to heavy realizing and it had the effect of sending prices lower here early in the session, but later built aggressiveness sent the prices up again and they finally closed 10 to 20 points higher; total sales were 134,500 bags, including: October, 6.4066.70c; November, 6.4566.60c; December, 6.5566.70c; January, 6.556.70c; February, 6.55c; March, 6.5567.70c; July, 7.2067.75c; September, 7.4067.4067.55c.

CATTLE—This was one of the big days of the season so far as cattle receipts are concerned. Both packers and speculators, nowever, started out in good season and cattle began to change hands at an early hour. Considering the size of the run, the market was in exceptionally good condition and right around steady prices were paid for the more desirable grades.

There were about fifteen cars of cornfed steady to strong prices were paid for the good to choice grades. As high as $8.30 was paid for a bunch of helfers and steers, which is not only the high price for today, but the top for the season. The fact that there were ten helfers and nine steers in the bunch makes the sale look all the better. The commoner grades of cattle of course did not sell quite as freely, but still they brought just about as much as the same kind sold for yesterday.

A large proportion of the receipts today was cow stuff. The market was all the way from steady to 5c or 10c lower, as the big receipts gave buyers an opportunity to pound the market a little. Trade was not particularly active, though the better.

Trade was the sade sold quite freely.

Sold the market was in feeder buyers and the market was in the same kind sold of the light and the better. The commoner grades of cattle of course did not sell quite as freely, but they brought just about as much as the same kind sold for yesterday.

way from steady to 5c or 10c lower, as the big receipts gave buyers an opportunity to pound the market a little. Trade was 1 not particularly active, though the better grades sold quite freely.

Bulls, calves and stags did not show much change from yesterday.

Stockers and feeders were in liberal receipt, but the heavyweights showing quality sold fully steady with yesterday. The common kinds and medium weights were a little slow and perhaps 5@10c lower.

The liberal receipts the last two days made buyers a little cautious about getting too many cattle on hand.

Western beef steers were in good demand today at steady to strong prices where the quality was good, but they were a little slow where the quality was common. 1 Cow stuff sold all the way from steady to se or 10c lower. Good heavy feeders were tully steady and others sold mostly 5@10c lower and thade was rather slow. Representative sales:
